THE PROJECT

The European Hackathon: shaping youth ideas on the future of Europe is a two-year long project funded by Erasmus+. It aims to broaden and strengthen youngsters' civic engagement and participation in democratic processes, through their active participation in a training pathway that will have a student/youth-centered and action-oriented approach. Toward the end of the project, the partners will organise "Eurothon", a European 5-day training event with 24 young people from across Europe.

TARGET GROUPS

Young people and activists

Youth organizations or wider civil society organizations

Young people willing play a more active role as EU Influencers/Ambassadors

OBJECTIVES

Enhance young people's civic participation, providing them with the right information, tools and channels to make their voices heard by policy makers and relevant organisations and stand up as tomorrow's change makers and new EU ambassadors

Increase the social inclusion of young people base on European values, while promoting intercultural dialogue and acceptance of diversity and tolerance

Strengthen young people's sense of initiative to support their communities

Promote equal learning, collaborative work, and self-learning through young people's involvement in the EUROTHON training programme and event

PROJECT RESULTS

Training context and Modules on Active Citizenship

Get informed! EUROTHON Online Area: an open space for young activists and generally young users, where all the resources produced will be uploaded and made available as OER
